STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN
September 11

On September 11, another day that will live in infamy, several thousand people were killed in a devastating terrorist attack in New York City and Washington, D.C. Two hijacked passenger planes were deliberately crashed into the World Trade Center Towers in New York, and the 1,350-foot buildings collapsed within an hour because of the extreme heat from burning jet fuel.

A third hijacked airplane slammed into the Pentagon in Washington, while a fourth, possibly headed for the White House or the Capitol, crashed in the Pennsylvania countryside when passengers resisted their hijackers.

Suspicion immediately fell on Islamic terrorist Osama bin Laden, whose organization had been responsible for bombings in Africa and the attack on the USS Cole. President George W. Bush labeled the attack an act of war and vowed to confront terrorism wherever it could be found.

Among the first real American heroes of the new century were the courageous New York City firemen and police officers who plunged into the inferno trying to assist victims. An estimated 400 firefighters and some 40 police officers were entombed when the skyscrapers collapsed.
